Korean Philosophy Essentials

This Specialization is envisioned for learners who wish to deepen their interest in the Korean language and culture or to expand their cross-cultural philosophical interests to Korean philosophy. Through 4 courses, we covered what new insights the Korean philosophy discussed here can show today. The historical background of the philosophies developed in Korea was introduced with a focus on philosophical innovations. We examined what discussions Korean thinkers have had and what solutions they have come up with regarding the philosophical problems common to mankind. We covered how traditional and modern philosophy meet and how Korean philosophical thinking permeates the Korean language.
